

Privacy Policy

According to this website, <https://tourthaiway.com>, we, as an owner and administer for this website, promise with visitors who will be our clients in the future or have already been our customers and also used our services that any information given us will be treated confidentially. We only use your personal information such as emails, names, mobile-phone number and other private ones for fulfilling and responding your inquiries, enquiries you all may have at first and also contacting, reminding, informing, exchanging, confirming and other communicative activities related to tour programs you will be using with TOURTHAIWAY.

We guarantee with all of you that we never ever sell, share and distribute your personal information to third parties who, by all means, are not involved with tour programs we two are dealing with each other. However, we reserve the right in case of necessity and inevitable in giving your personal information to third parties such as hotels, guest houses, accommodations you have already booked through TOURTHAIWAY, in that sense and for your own sake we have to provide some basic necessary information to third parties inevitably in order to let them process and fulfill their duties.

Moreover, any changes may happen in the future regarding this privacy policy must be published and shown here at this website at least 15 days in advance before implementing and be applied into official practices.

Finally, any other questions you all may have related to our privacy policy feel free to contact us at

TOURTHAIWAY

55/496, Rangsit-Nakornnayok Road

Thanyaburi, Pathumtani

Thailand.

24/4/2018